On December 20, 2005, Dallas High School graduate Mike Cleary lost his life during Operation Iraqi Freedom. On June 14, 2008, a group of Mike's friends led the first National Run for the Fallen, a memorial run across the United States. The participants ran one mile dedicated to each soldier who died fighting in Operations Iraqi Freedom and Enduring Freedom, leaving a memorial placard and an American flag for each soldier. That same year, a group of Dallas Senior High School students held their own local Run for the Fallen, a 5k race to commemorate First Lieutenant Michael J. Cleary and all soldiers who died during the conflict. Now in its 3rd year, a group of students will hold the third annual Run for the same reason: to honor Michael J. Cleary and so many others who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country.

All proceeds will go to:

• First Lieutenant Michael J. Cleary Memorial Fund
